EVENT and COMMENT.

Mrs. Margarett, wife of Philip Lybrook, died at Pembrooke, Giles county, Nov. 18, aged 87 years. The Lybrook family has long been one of the leading ones in Giles county. Mrs. Lybrook was born in the days of Washington, and outlived the age of Lee, and there is connected with her name one of the prettiest and most romantic legends of all the New River Valley.

At the recent term of the Giles county court, Lucius Thompson, charged with over to the F K, along with his usually canal, killing Monkey John Jones at Newport, large supply of nincompoops. was found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for twelve months. Monk. dared Luke to shoot him, and Luke, rather than "give up the gun," accommodated him.

The coroners' jury in the case of A. W. Mathews, of Wytheville, has rendered a verdict that "he came to his death by a blow on the head with a stone thrown by Robert R.
